He is part of the Restoration Sunday School class and also helps lead the class as well as being part of a small group. Paul knows God wants him to serve and not just be idle during his retirement years and is looking forward to reaching out & loving others well as a deacon.

Steve McKinnon has served as deacon for the last 3 years and will continue in that role. He is married to Peggy, a part of the New Community Sunday School class, Colonial Elem. Mentor and volunteers on the safety team as well as numerous other roles throughout our church family. Steve is looking forward to continuing his service with the deacons.

Kris Newlin has been an active part of New Hope since it began and a longtime member of the Presbyterian church. She is part of the hand bell choir and our Women on Wednesdays programming. She has 2 children and 5 grandchildren and is very much looking forward to meeting new members and serving the congregation.

ELDERS

Since 2010, Doug and his wife, Jan, have been part of our New Hope family. Doug is a Stephen Minister, property council member, served as a deacon for 6 years, part of the Living Word Sunday School class and various other groups around NHP. He is the father to 2 sons and grandfather to one, he enjoys helping others and being a part of what a great church New Hope truly is.

Sandy Knipe is a founding member of New Hope, has previously served as an elder, part of the Bereans Sunday School class, choir & hand bells as well as the Lois Circle. She is mom to two, grandmother to seven and great grandmother to fourteen. She is excited about New Hope's future and happy to serve however she can.

Mark Myers is returning as an elder, has been a part of New Hope for 7 years, is married to Michelle and father to Olivia(20), Griffin(16), Ainsley(14) & Adelynn(10). He is part of the Parent Network Sunday School class, past leader of Men's Ministry and leads the Blast & Cast Connect Group. Mark is an agronomist and is thankful for the great programming for all ages here at NHP. He is excited to humbly submit to the Lord's direction in helping guide New Hope into the future.

Ken Walker has been a part of New Hope since the beginning, previously served as an elder and on a variety of councils within the church. He is married to Mary Jo and they have 5 children and ten grandchildren. Ken is excited about the future, meaningful growth of our church as we strive to become a church known and recognized for living out the gospel together in our community.

Rodney Woosley has been part of New Hope for 5 years, is married to Kate and dad to Emma(age 11), Oliver(age 8) & Ben(age 4). He plays bass guitar with the contemporary praise band, is part of the Parent Network Sunday School class and volunteers in children's ministry. Feeling like God has grown his leadership experience through his career, Rodney feels compelled to give back to God's Kingdom and serve as an elder. Rodney manages the media production department at a medical device manufacturer.

Trustee

Dan Miller is a founding member of New Hope and has previously served in a multitude of roles including elder and trustee. Dan has a heart for helping others and has given of his time and talents with missions work, leading Divorce Care and currently serves on the production team with our livestreaming.
